

British Values

Introduction

All staff are required to follow the prevent “British Values “ guidance “showing tolerance of and respect for the rights of others; “not undermining fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs; “ensuring that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit pupils’ vulnerability or might lead them to break the law.”

What are British Values?

Lilliput Preschool considers the following as being British values: Courage and selflessness, truth, honour, fidelity, discipline and duty, hospitality, industriousness, self-reliance and perseverance.

Aims of this policy

To provide identify and state an appropriate and professional approach so that children are able to: Make judgements about how to behave and act and understand the reasons for such behaviour. Understand and distinguish ‘right from wrong’. Have respect for the fundamental British Values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different beliefs and faiths. Be able to develop a personal code of behaviour i.e.: telling the truth, being honest, having respect for justice

Implementing this policy

- By commitment made evident through the following:
- Fostering of mutual respect and trust, e.g. through the message given in circle time.
- Encouraging pupils to express their point of view and listen to the views of others via EYFS. Pre-School displays and exhibitions which foster British Values.
- Ensure planning is regularly audited to reflect on and promote positive attitudes to British Values
- Pupils, parents and staff are aware of Lilliput Preschools approach to British Values.

Lilliput Preschool values include the following which help set the context for our attitude towards British Values: Hope and Aspiration We have high expectations, aim to excel and strive to make good things happen. Resilience and Courage We

Lilliput Pre-School
Iver - Hillingdon - Uxbridge www.lilliputpre-school.co.uk stay strong, are brave and determined to find a way to succeed. Respect and Compassion We show due regard for our environment and for the feelings, wishes and rights of ourselves and of others. Integrity and Honesty We are trustworthy, true to ourselves and our beliefs. A Sense of Wonder We are curious about the world, ask questions and enjoy exploring and learning new ideas. Lilliput Pre-school believes in the promotion of: a) personal responsibility and understanding right and wrong, and having respect for rules and regulations b) an understanding of how individuals can contribute to the well-being of those in the locality. Lilliput Pre-school seeks to provide every opportunity for children to become positive and emotionally resilient with the knowledge and confidence to stand by their own convictions, whilst respecting others.